1. On the Jer - i - cho road there is ser - vice to - day, For all
2. On the Jer - i - cho road you will find him to - day, Your broth -
3. On the Jer - i - cho road man - y forc - es combine, To sti - who are read - y to work or to pray; A - round us are ly - ing the er who wan - ders from Je - sus a - way; Oh, wait not to - morrow, his fle the voice of the Spir - it Di - vine; A - bout us are ly - ing the wound - ed and dy - ing, And few the Sa - mar - i - tans deep cup of sor - row Is brim - ming and bit - ter, no wound - ed and dy - ing, Go, broth - er, and pour in the pass - ing that way. On the Jer - i - cho road, leading down, lon - ger de - lay. down, down, down, oil and the wine.

The Le - vite goes care - less - ly by, Yet man - y who journey a - long that way Are wound - ed and read - y to die.
